

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

WORKSHOPS FOR EDUCATORS

Enhance your classroom experience with the arts!

- Experience interactive workshops in dance, theater and music designed for classroom teachers, arts educators, curriculum supervisors, community leaders and school administrators.
- Participate in performing arts activities that will connect to basic classroom instruction in language arts, social studies, history, literature, early childhood education and much more.
- Learn about NJPAC's SchoolTime Performance Series.
- Receive comprehensive curriculum materials including NJPAC's Teacher Resource Guide.
- Earn continuing education credit hours for participation in NJPAC Professional Development Workshops.

njea NJPAC Professional Development Workshops are endorsed by the New Jersey Education Association.

REGISTER NOW!

Discounts available for NJEA Members

Two full day sessions held at NJPAC

Fall Session: October 14, 2004 Winter Session: January 19, 2005

Visit our website at www.njpac.org

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

WORKSHOPS FOR EDUCATORS

Enhance Your Classroom Experience with the Arts!

Fall Session: Thursday, October 14, 2004

Winter Session: Wednesday, January 19, 2005

Each full-day session will be held from 8:00a.m.-3:00p.m.
Continental breakfast and lunch provided.

Registration Fees (per session)

General Registration: $75

NJEA Member Discount Registration: $67.50

To register online or to download the registration form, visit our website at www.njpac.org.

To receive a brochure and registration form for the Professional Development Workshops for Educators, call the Arts Education Hotline at (973) 353-8009.

This program is made possible, in part, through the support of Roche.

NJPAC is registered with the NJ State Department of Education as a professional development provider. These workshops may be appropriate for your school district Professional Improvement Plan.

Photos: Deshong